

Acceptance Day Uruguay - May 26 , 2025

01 Opening Session – Welcome and Presentation of the Agenda

Speaker : Laura Margolis , President of ISOC Uruguay

Laura Margolis opened the event thanking you for your participation of the public and highlighting punctuality in order to be able to tackle an extensive agenda . He explained that the Universal Acceptance Days event is in its third global edition , and this is the second first time it has been held in Uruguay. The main event this year was held in Vietnam, the previous one in Serbia , and the performing around 60 events similar around the world , 16 of them in Latin America and the Caribbean.

She pointed out that the day would be divided into two blocks and would have both in -person presentations as remote . Among the speakers remote Rodrigo de la Parra (ICANN) is included , as well as participants from India and Nigeria, whose interventions would be in English . He mentioned the possible transcript availability by cell phone , in charge of Nicolás .

She highlighted the collaboration with ICANN and the support UNESCO special , which selected this event to support . Closed welcoming formal to Rodrigo de la Parra, ICANN Vice President for Latin America and the Caribbean.

